

Mission Statement

The Northern Virginia Academy of Clinical Psychologists (NVCP) is a nonprofit organization of licensed clinical psychologists committed to advancing the science and practice of clinical psychology to promote human welfare. Our mission is achieved through:

- Promoting high ethical standards and excellence in training within the field of clinical psychology;
- Facilitating opportunities for the exchange of ideas, research, and professional experiences;
- Educating the public about the science, practice, and resources of clinical psychology; and
- Addressing social inequalities faced by marginalized communities by maintaining an unwavering commitment to social justice, diversity, and inclusion.

Diversity Statement

The Northern Virginia Academy of Clinical Psychologists (NVCP) is committed to fostering an inclusive environment that acknowledges and addresses diversity both within the organization and among the communities it serves. NVCP defines diversity broadly, including race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, gender identity, and spiritual beliefs. With a focus on social justice, NVCP is dedicated to addressing inequities faced by marginalized populations. Through education and advocacy, the organization empowers psychologists to take meaningful action toward promoting equity and inclusion in their professional and community roles.
